the work we do. Every YA offering ensures that all participants will experience extraordinary art and artists, understand the value of art and creativity in the world, have the opportunity to create art that engages the imagination and express ideas, and connect art and the creative process to life and other learning. Since our founding in 1973, we have grown into the region's largest arts education organization and in 2012 we merged with young Audiences of Eastern Pennsylvania. We have evolved from a presenter of western classical music offered in school assembly programs to an organization that provides workshops, residencies, performances, professional development seminars and family arts opportunities in every art form throughout the State of NJ and 7 counties in Eastern PA. Our work is child-centered, outcome driven, measurably effective and consistent with Common Core State Standards. Our work begins in preschools, continues through high schools and is offered during and after school, summers and weekends. In addition to schools, we provide programs to libraries, camps and community groups. Over the last 40 years, our programs have impacted the lives of 11.1 million children.
