

Dance to Learn is:

- a four-year interdisciplinary and inclusive dance curriculum with the goal to advance dance education in schools and community settings.
- a model of dance education that aligns with the NJ Department of Education Core Curriculum Standards for Dance and the National Core Arts Standards in Dance.

The Dance to Learn curriculum:

- encourages students to explore, internalize and transform classroom learning.
- develops individual creative voices.
- offers opportunities for students to reflect, critique and connect personal experiences to their learning.
- is adaptive to any dance style, genre, or culture.
- connects to language arts, mathematics, science and social studies, physical education and music curriculums.
- offers formative and summative assessment and documentation tools.

Teachers are offered:

- professional development and mentorship to integrate dance into their classes.
- an effective and efficient way of integrating dance education into the school day.

“ Dance to Learn has offered...a chance to take what has been learned in the classroom into the students' bodies, it has helped build confidence in our students, and our teachers love the dance classes. ”

- Anna Mae Stefanelli, Principal
