Candidates for Board of Trustees
Class of 2022

CONFIRMED TO STAND FOR ELECTION AT ANNUAL MEETING

Karen Collias

CONSULTANT/ADVISOR/INNOVATOR, Princeton, NJ and New York, NY (2006 to present)
Recommended by Eleanor Horne

POTENTIAL CANDIDATES

New since last meeting

Hilde McGeehan

Assessment Consultant

She lives in Warminster, PA. (Bucks County). She was an English Language Arts and German teacher and then director of staff development in her district. She left that work to become a consultant in assessment internationally. I have worked with her locally and in Singapore. She consulted for both Grant Wiggins and Jay McTighe.

Nominated by Everett Kline

Conversation underway

Tom Sullivan

Chief Executive Officer
Princeton Partners

A college debate gave Tom a lifelong interest in the art of persuasion. A job interview got him into advertising. He didn't get the job. The interviewer, however, admired his persuasion skills, connected him with an agency and the rest was history. In his twenty-four years at Princeton Partners, Tom has come up with enough ideas to fill a library. One of those ideas is expanding what it means to be a marketer by launching and supporting start-ups through Innovation Garden, an incubator housed at the agency. By the way, in that college debate, he was defending capitalism. He won. Enough said.

Joe Whall

Senior Vice President
PNC Foundation

PNC executive responsible for grants to Young Audiences supporting early childhood education totaling $192,000 since 2007.

Recommended by Michele Russo

NEWER CANDIDATES

Sushama Austin-Connor

She is director of Continuing Education at the Princeton Theological Seminary and has a background in communications. She is African American. Lives in Ewing at the Christina Seix Academy with her husband who is Head of School.
